

WORKSHOP SERIES

Leadership for Successful Employee Management

Learn how to become a preferred employer by building your leadership skills.

Through hands-on activities and discussions, you will complete the course with materials and ideas that you can immediately implement on your farm.

You will

- Build leadership skills to effectively manage people
- Develop and implement an employee handbook
- Identify your communication style and understand how to communicate with different styles
- Complete an analysis of human risk on farm and develop policies and procedures to mitigate
- Create a recruitment and hiring strategy to increase candidates
- Build a farm culture that improves employee retention
- Implement on-going employee feedback to provide clarity and empower employees
- Understand employee tax law and regulations
- Assess your compensation and wage plans to improve market competitiveness
